If you are listed to serve & cannot attend please call someone else on the list to serve in your place.

The parish website is www.stmarthacatholicchurch.org Bulletins are available on website. Please check for other announcements as well.

Religious education teachers needed! Sharing the Faith with the next generation is important, especially now. Cheryl Figlio, Director of Religious Education, and Father Butler provide all the materials for teaching RE classes on Sunday between 10:30 and 11:20. Become a lead teacher or a co-teacher. Or serve as a substitute for those times when a teacher needs a week away. Contact Cheryl (RE@stmarthas.org) if you have questions or would like to volunteer.

Book review: Thursday July 16th we will begin a summer book review of the book Why We’re Catholic by Trent Horn (ISBN 1683570243). You can easily find new and used copies on Amazon. The group sizes will depend on the health circumstances of mid-July; however, the plan currently will be to meet on Thursday evenings after Mass in the rectory for at least seven meetings.

Catechetical resources and social media:

MyParish app - You can also now download an app call MyParish App. This app has things from personal devotion to homilies and Mass readings and many other resources. You can set it up to get notifications regarding our parish specifically. It’s available in the App Store and Google Play.

Flocknote - Another resource is Flocknote; text stmartha (no space) to 84576 to join or fill out the form on the parish website. Flocknote is for parish communication.

Formed.org - There is a website full of books, video and audio book resources at <https://www.Formed.org>. It’s like a Catholic Netflix. It has things from apologetics, movies to sacramental prep.

Facebook - St. Martha also has a Facebook page. We encourage you to take advantage of all these resources.

Please pray for the homebound in our parish Alexis Miklich.
