Bishop Spalding has given an update with regards to public Masses. Public Masses can be resumed on May 18th with guidelines concerning Covid-19. Daily Masses will begin at St. Martha's on May 19th. Eucharistic Adoration and confession will be Tuesday through Friday from 5:30-6:30 pm and Mass will be at 6:30 pm. Saturday morning Mass will be at 8 am with Adoration and confessions from 8:30 am to 9:30 am. Saturday evening confessions will be from 4:15-5:15 pm with Mass at 5:30 pm. Sunday Mass will be at 9:30 am.

Physical distancing will have to take place so there will be some adjustments to the seating arrangements. The capacity of the church is not to exceed 50%. So with the distancing and capacity restriction the number of people physically able to be in the church is greatly reduced. There will be no bringing up of the gifts, distribution of the Precious Blood nor sign of peace. Ushers will not collect the collections. You can place your tithing in a basket in the back by the statue of St. Martha.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

We have some new and wonderful free resources available to us now. We still have the website (address is on the left). You can also now download an app call My Parish App. This app has some great information and you can set it up to get notifications regarding our parish specifically. Another resource is Flocknote; text stmartha (no space) to 84576 to join. Flocknote is great for parish communication. There is a website full of books, video and audio book resources at Formed.org. St. Martha also has a Facebook page. We encourage you to take advantage of all these resources.

Please pray for the homebound in our parish Alexis Miklich.
